INDEPENDENT ARTISTS PROGRAM

– Media Arts

PROGRAM INFORMATION

Application Closing Dates: March 15 and October 1

INTRODUCTION

Independent Artists Program Media Arts grants supports a range of media arts practice such as film and video, audio, computer-integrated media and scriptwriting.

If the primary impetus for the project is to meet marketplace need or developing economic strategies, contact the Arts Board's Program Consultant to discuss other potential options for support.

GRANT TYPE

Creative

Supports the creation or development of work in any art form, or the continuation of work in progress.

Production and Presentation

Supports the production, presentation and exhibition of new artistic works, and/or the remounting of existing works.

Professional Development

Supports opportunities that will develop and advance artistic practice through specialized study, instruction or training in a formal or informal setting.

Research

Supports independent research in the arts, research on new techniques or technologies and research related to new work.

An application may be moved to another Grant Type by the Arts Board or the jury panel if it is determined to be more relevant to the application.

APPLICANT CATEGORY

Emerging Professional Artists

- Have completed training in their discipline through formal or informal studies or apprenticeships
- Are recognized by their peers as having achieved the level of emerging professional in their field and
- Have attained critical recognition for a body of work independent of academic study that demonstrates their emerging professional status.

Established Professional Artists

- Have produced a significant body of work in their discipline over a number of years
- Have made a contribution regionally, nationally or internationally to their discipline and
- Are making a sustained and progressive contribution to the art form.

An application may be moved to another Applicant Category by the Arts Board or the jury panel.

GRANT AMOUNT

Maximum grants available are:

Grant Type	Established Artists	Emerging Artists
Creative	$17,000	$6,000
Professional Development	$ 7,500	$4,000
Research	$ 5,000	$2,000
Production and Presentation	$17,000

- The granting process is competitive and funds are limited. An application may not be funded or may not be funded for the full amount requested.
- No individual applicant may receive more than a total of $34,000 over a 4-year period from the Independent Artists Program.
- A grant recipient must meet all conditions for the release of the funds and claim their grant within 12 months after the date of the letter notifying them of the results of their application. If the conditions are not met and the grant is not claimed within this 12-month period, the Arts Board reserves the right to rescind the grant.
- A grant recipient must begin the funded project no later than 12 months from the start date initially approved. If the project does not begin within this 12-month period, the Arts Board reserves the right to rescind the grant.
- A grant recipient must receive approval from the Arts Board to make major changes to a funded project including modifications to project dates and/or significant budget revisions. If a project is significantly changed without approval, the Arts Board reserves the right to rescind the grant.
- The Saskatchewan Arts Board is required to issue T4A forms for taxation purposes to individuals for amounts received over $500. (See Collaborations, page 5, for information about T4A forms for collaborative projects.)

ELIGIBILITY

Eligible Applicants

Emerging or Established Professional Artists (see page 2), working independently or collaboratively, who:

- Are Canadian citizens or Permanent Residents of Canada
- Are residents of Saskatchewan who have lived and pursued their creative work and careers in the province for a minimum of one year prior to the date of making this grant application
- Have a permanent physical address in Saskatchewan and
- Live in Saskatchewan for at least six months in a year.

Applicants who meet the criteria for Saskatchewan residency as described above may be eligible to apply for Independent Artists Program funding while they are temporarily absent from the province for an arts education or artistic opportunity (e.g. artist in residence). The absence must be for no more than two years and not be recurring. The applicant must maintain their permanent physical address in Saskatchewan, must intend to return to the province at the end of the term and cannot receive funding from the jurisdiction of their temporary residence.

Proof of residency is not required as part of the application but must be available on request. If requested, applicants must be able to provide three or more documents that verify residency status. Documentation may include, but is not limited to, a valid Saskatchewan Health Services card, a valid Saskatchewan driver's license, evidence of income taxes paid in the previous year as a Saskatchewan resident and/or other documentation that verifies Saskatchewan residency. If sufficient documentation is not produced upon request, the applicant is ineligible.

Students who meet the eligibility requirements listed above and are enrolled in graduate level courses in an arts program are eligible to apply for Independent Artists Program funding if their proposed project is completely unrelated to their program of study and they will not receive credit for the work undertaken during the project term. This must be confirmed in a letter from their Department Head.

Ineligible Applicants

- Applicants who do not meet the criteria for Saskatchewan residency
- Undergraduate students enrolled full-time at an educational institution (full-time is defined as more than two courses)
- Applicants who have received the maximum allowable grant amount from the Independent Artists Program over a 4-year period
- Applicants who have outstanding reports for any previous grant received from the Saskatchewan Arts Board. In the case of collaborative projects, each artist who has completed an Appendix 2 declaration must be in good standing for the application to be eligible
- Presenters or agents applying on behalf of an artist they present or represent.

Applicants are not eligible to submit more than one Independent Artists Program application per deadline.

Exception: artists applying independently and as members of one or more collaborations.

Ineligible Activities

- Activity undertaken prior to the grant deadline
- Activity undertaken for academic study
- Fundraising activities
- Catalogues
- Educational and student projects
- Commissioned work
- Touring
- For Film and Video:
 - Work created for commercial distribution (such as film and television, commercial new media, or commercial radio or internet)
 - Projects using media (including websites) as a tool to record, document, or sell existing artworks
 - pilots
 - 'Calling card' films
 - Instructional projects
 - Promotional projects
 - Corporate or industrial projects
 - Projects commissioned by educational institutions or social affairs agencies
 - Activities in which the applicant does not have artistic and editorial control

Producers are not ordinarily eligible as they do not have artistic and editorial control. To be considered eligible, producers must provide evidence that they are a vital and integral part of the creative team.
- For Audio:
 - The normal and conventional development of sound effects
 - Projects to record classical music, popular music, or traditional jazz
 - Audio components of installation works

(These projects may be eligible for a Visual Arts Grant under the Independent Artists Program.)
- For Computer-integrated Media:
 - Digital imaging projects which result in two- or three-dimensional works designed for exhibition in gallery spaces

(These projects may be eligible for a Visual Arts Grant under the Independent Artists Program.)

 - Web sites or pages intended for presentation or promotion of other artistic media
- For Scriptwriting:
 - Scripts written for commercial distribution (such as film and television, new media, radio or internet).

Ineligible Applications

- Applications that do not include all the required information and support material listed in the Application Requirements Checklist (page 7), including balanced budgets
- Applications delivered, postmarked or sent by courier after the specified deadline
- Illegible, incomplete or unsigned applications
- Applications submitted by e-mail or fax.

COLLABORATIONS

Collaborative projects may involve both Emerging and Established Professional Artists. The majority of artists must be Saskatchewan residents and meet the requirements for eligible applicants (page 3). One artist shall make the application on behalf of the collaborative team, serve as the contact and sign the Declaration in the Application Form. The artist who is the applicant also is responsible for ensuring all grant and reporting requirements are fulfilled.

If the application is successful, the grant is paid to the Name for Cheque Issue as listed on the Application Form, after all grant conditions have been met and required documents are approved.

- If the identified payee is the artist making the application, or another individual, the Saskatchewan Arts Board is required to issue a T4A form for taxation purposes to that individual for amounts received over $500.
- If the identified payee is the name of the collective or group and it has the ability to receive payments under that name, the Saskatchewan Arts Board is not required to issue a T4A for taxation purposes.
- The Saskatchewan Arts Board cannot divide a grant and/or pay portions of a grant to each member of a collaborative team.

ADJUDICATION

Applicants are to consider the Adjudication Criteria when developing their applications.

For more information about the Saskatchewan Arts Board's adjudication process and how funds are allocated, visit our website at www.artsboard.sk.ca/adjudication.

An independent panel of jurors with appropriate knowledge and experiences will assess applications through a competitive process based on the following:

Adjudication Criteria

1. Artistic Merit:
 - The applicant's résumé, past work and level of achievement relative to the Applicant Category (Emerging or Established Professional Artist)
 - The merit of the applicant's work as defined by practice in the art form and practice among the applicant's peers and
 - The applicant's development of a distinct and personal body of work.
2. Merit of the Activity:
 - The project's relevance to the development of the applicant's artistic practice, body of work and career
 - The merit of the activity as defined by practice in the art form and among the applicant's peers and
 - Scope and feasibility of the project.
3. Planning:
 - The applicant's ability and experience to complete the proposed project and
 - A clearly articulated, sound financial plan with a realistic timeline and appropriate budget.

REPORTS

Grant recipients are required to submit a final report, including a financial report, no later than 30 days after the project end date.

RECOGNITION OF FUNDER

Grant recipients are required to acknowledge the Saskatchewan Arts Board's support wherever possible and appropriate. The Saskatchewan Arts Board will provide grant recipients with an acknowledgement statement and access to the Arts Board's logo.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION

The personal and confidential information that is provided in an application is collected, used and disclosed in accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act. This information is required to process the application. Personal and confidential information disclosed in the application will only be shared, as necessary, with employees of the Saskatchewan Arts Board and the jurors. If awarded a grant, the name of the recipient, community, project description and amount of the grant will be made known publicly. The Saskatchewan Arts Board will respond appropriately to any inquiries regarding the privacy policies and procedures, including requests to access the applicant's personal information.

Budget (continued...)

- Revenue:
 - Indicate whether funding sources are confirmed or unconfirmed.
 - A personal contribution may be included in the budget if the applicant intends to assume expenses not covered by other revenue sources.
- Expenses:
 - Indicate which expenses will be covered by the Arts Board grant. Funding from other sources may not be assigned to the same expenses as those covered by the Arts Board Grant.
 - Eligible expenses can include, but are not limited to items such as living expenses; travel and accommodation expenses (at Government of Saskatchewan rates); studio rental; materials costs; equipment and other capital costs; production and personnel costs; mentorship fees; promotion, documentation and/or exhibition application costs; framing and crating costs, and other expenses directly related to the proposed project.
 - The maximum allowable amount for living expenses is $2,000 per month for applicants working on their projects full time.
 - Living expenses shall be prorated if applicants are working on their projects less than full time.
 - Academics applying for living expenses shall include a letter from their institution indicating they have been granted unpaid leave for the term of the project.
 - Explain why equipment rental/purchase and/or other capital cost items are integral to the project. If items are to be purchased, explain why purchase is a better option than rental for the period of the project.
 - Include pertinent quotes for production and personnel costs, and mentorship fees.
 - Crating costs are eligible only for confirmed exhibitions outside the applicant's local region. Provide information regarding the crating costs and those that will be covered by the host organization.
- As part of their final report, successful applicants will be required to provide copies of receipts for all expenses over $100 covered by the Arts Board grant (with the exception of living expense costs as detailed above).

RÉSUMÉS (maximum 3 pages)

- Include website URLs if available. Submit on 8½x11 white paper, single-sided, page numbered.
- If the application is for a collaborative project, include a one-page résumé (maximum) for each member of the collective or group.
- Please note that any résumés included are scanned and forwarded to jurors as submitted. If a résumé contains any personal information that you do not want forwarded to the jury, it is your responsibility to ensure that information has been redacted before the résumé is submitted with this application.

SUPPORT MATERIAL

Material submitted in excess of the maximums indicated in this Application Package will not be forwarded to the jurors or considered during the adjudication process.

Applications and support material are scanned and provided to the jury electronically. If support material cannot be scanned, please note the number of copies of an item that must be submitted with the application.

Enclose the following information/material to support the application:

1. Samples of Applicant's Work

- For Video, Film or Audio Documentation (maximum 10 minutes running time not to exceed a total file size of 1 GB) and Print Documentation (maximum 3)
 - Documentation of installation performance and similar work incorporating kinetic, audio or other elements not appropriate to digital image documentation.
 - Do not submit news media documentation related to public relations (including print media and television interviews).
- For Audio
 - A first edit of the film or video and
 - A letter from the producer confirming their collaboration.

Support Material (continued...)

- For Scriptwriting
 - Sample of the work proposed under the grant application (maximum 30 pages) and

 - Submit RGB or SRGB colour mode files only (no CMYK files)
 - Video files: (maximum 5 minutes).
If both images and video are included, remove 5 images.

2. For Collaborative Projects

Enclose support material that shows any past collaborative work. Include a separate list of all collaborating artists who have submitted an Artist Information and Declaration form (Appendix 2).

3. For Professional Development Applicants

Include a letter of acceptance or proof of application from the proposed program and, if applicable, program brochures or a letter from the proposed mentor that clearly states their agreement to participate in the project.

4. For Emerging Professional Artist Applicants – Letters of Appraisal

Emerging Professional Artist applications will be supported by a minimum of one (1) and a maximum of three (3) Letters of Appraisal (Appendix 3 – page 17). These appraisals assist the jury with its adjudication. Appendix 3 also is available on the Arts Board's website.

- Include a list of the names and telephone numbers of the individuals providing Letters of Appraisal
- Individuals providing Letters of Appraisal must be professionals in the art form they are assessing, and must be qualified to make an appraisal of the artistic merit of the applicant's work and the merit of the project activity
- To maintain confidentiality, Letters of Appraisal should be sent directly to the Saskatchewan Arts Board office. If the Letter of Appraisal is included with the application, it should be in a sealed envelope with the appraiser's signature across the seal.

5. Other Support Material

- Include other material (maximum 7 pages) that will support the application such as letters of support, reviews, etc.
Submit photocopies of any reviews on 8½ x11 white paper, single-sided and highlight relevant quotes. Include the source and date of publication on any photocopies of published material such as reviews, articles, etc.
- Enclose a list of the items included as support material. Indicate the number of copies submitted for each item.

 - 4 copies of items that cannot be scanned (DVDs, program brochures, etc.)
- Label USB drives, CDs, DVDs and any material that cannot be scanned with the program name, applicant name and application closing date
- Ensure the USB drive, CD and DVDs are readable
- DO not submit:
 - Paper documents that are double-sided as only one side of each page will be scanned and provided to the jury
 - Original works of art.

One copy of support material submitted by successful applicants will be retained by the Saskatchewan Arts Board.

All other support material will be returned only if requested by an applicant within 30 days of the date of the letter notifying them of the grant decision. The Arts Board will dispose of the extra support material after that date. The Arts Board makes every effort to handle and return support material safely; however, it is not responsible for the loss of any material.
